

THE MACMILLANS OF BROCKLOCH – A Tentative Tree as of 1st Nov. 2003

This family tree is tentative because it is largely based on index entries. Examination of the actual documents to which these entries refer may result in further revisions in due course (when the funds can be found to carry on the research). The indices were: Registers of Deeds, Registers of Sasines (sas) – both the General (i.e. national) and the Particular Registers for Kirkcudbrightshire and Dumfriesshire – plus Testaments & Inventories for same counties. Other sources are as indicated; plus unchecked information from Somerled MacMillan (Som).
