

Andrew Murray } At Dumfries the fourth day of February Eighteen hundred and thirty } fifty nine years In presence of Thos Napier Esquire Advocate

Robert McMillan Esq } At Danvers the fourth day of February English hours of Salem } and fifty nine years in presence of that worthy Judge
George Thompson of the Commission of 1791
Compared Samuel Williams, Esquire, Water in Danvers, who gave in the January and 6th next overtaking during that same night, he received in the Commission that Book of said Commission which drew the said Commissions good & lawful, and returned to him to be here accordingly, whereof the true follows.

371.

Inventory of the Personal Estate of the late Robert McMillan Esquire of Glasgow who resided at Glasgow in the Parish of Glasgow and died there on the third day of November hundred and fifty eight years.

I	Cash in the House	£ 26 6
II	The deceased's Household Furniture and other effects as valued by Mr. R. Robert Gordon and James Thomson Auctioneer	211 7 1/2
III	The deceased's Stock, Crops and other effects valued by Messrs. James Kennedy of Glasgow, James & William Hunter, Glasgow, James & John Hunter, Glasgow, and James Hunter, Glasgow	£ 153 16
IV	Balance in Account Current with the Commercial Bank of Scotland, Dumfries, and Andrew & Co. to date of death	1200 15
V	" " " " with the Union Bank of Scotland, Glasgow	1551 2 1/2
VI	Debt due by Mr. James Gordon, Glasgow	35
VII	" " " " by Mr. Smith - Glasgow	115
VIII	Part of Debt	£ 100
IX	Half year's Rent due Macdonalds - Glasgow	305

As per the Deceased's Personal Estate £ 211 7 1/2
(signed) James Macmillan, Miles Leighton & Co.

At Dumfries the fourth day of February Eighteen hundred and fifty nine years.

In presence of Miles Leighton Esquire one of the Justices of the Peace for the County of Dumfries.
Compeared James McMillan residing at Glasgow in the Parish of Glasgow and County of Dumfries who being solemnly sworn and interrogated Deponees that the said deceased Robert McMillan of Glasgow who resided at Glasgow, deceased the Deponent's Father died there on the third day of November last and the Deponent is now to take upon the possession and management of his Personal Estate as per Inventory above given and of the said Deponent knows of no settlement or other writing relating to the disposal of the said deceased's Personal Estate and Effects, or any part thereof. That the foregoing Inventory which is signed by the Deponent and said Commissioner Deponee is a full and complete Inventory of his Personal or Movable Estate and Effects of the said deceased where same situated and belonging or due to him immediately at the time of his death in so far as the same has come to the Deponent's knowledge and that the said Estate is of the value of Nine thousand pounds and under the value of Fifty thousand pounds. All which is true as the Deponent shall answer to God. (Signed) James Macmillan, Miles Leighton & Co.

Mrs. Marion Robison or Robison Widow of William Robison of London

At Dumfries the fourth day of February Eighteen hundred and fifty nine years. In presence of Miles 372.

Esquire Esquire Advocate Commissioner of the Commissaries of Dumfries compared Robert Hugh Hunter in Dumfries who gave in the Inventory and oath after interdict during that the same might be recorded in the Commissary Court Books of said Commissaries, which desire the said Commissary found reasonable, and returned the same to be done accordingly whereof the three follows.

General Inventory of the Personal Estate of the late Marion Robison or Robison Widow of the late William Robison of London who died upon the twelfth day of April Eighteen hundred and fifty five years some time residing in Dumfries.

Proportion of annuity of £1000 due to the deceased by John Edgar, the said John Edgar Esquire granted a redeemable bond of £1000 for annuity over the lands of Edinburgh and others the interest of which was paid by the deceased, payment to the said bond some time since £1000 was paid by the deceased, amount of the deceased's Estate situated in Scotland, England, Ireland, and elsewhere, Mary E. Robison, J. M. Robison, Margaret Robison, the Executors.

At Dumfries the fifth day of February Six thousand eight hundred and fifty nine years, in presence of Christopher Anderson Esquire Commissioner of the Commissaries of Dumfries, Esquire Deponee Mary Edgar Robison, Margaret Robison, and Sarah Marion Robison all residing in Dumfries who being solemnly sworn and interrogated, deponee that Marion Robison or Robison Widow of the late William Robison of London and sometime residing in Dumfries, died intestate on the twelfth day of April Eighteen hundred and fifty five; that the deponents had entered upon the possession and management of her Personal or Movable Estate as per Inventory given and of the said deponents know of no settlement or other writing left by the deceased relating to the disposal of her Personal Estate or Effects, or any part thereof; that the foregoing Inventory each page of which is signed by the Deponents and the said Commissioner Esquire is a full and complete Inventory of the Personal Estate and Effects of the said deceased, wherever situated, and belonging or due immediately to the deceased, at the time of her death in so far as the same have come to the deponents' knowledge; and that the said Estate situated in the United Kingdom is of the value of Twenty thousand pounds Sterling and under the value of Fifty thousand pounds Sterling. All which is true as the Deponents shall answer to God. (Signed) M. E. Robison, J. M. Robison, Margaret Robison, the Executors.

George Nelson } At Dumfries the twelfth day of February Eighteen hundred and fifty nine years. In presence of James Robison, Esquire, Commissioner of the Commissaries of Dumfries, Esquire Deponee Samuel Adamson Miller in Dumfries who gave in the Inventory and oath and Robert Adamson after interdict during that the same might be recorded in the Commissary Court Books of said Commissaries, which desire the said Commissary found reasonable, and returned the same to be done accordingly whereof the three follows next.