Committee.

THE HON. MR. JUSTICE P. O. LAWRENCE, Chairman.

THE HEADMASTER.	MAJOR A. I. R. BUTLER.	C. TOPPIN, hon. treas.
CANON S. R. JAMES.	N. MORICE.	H. KEMPSON.
C. STEWART COX.	R. B. PORCH, hon. sec.	H. G. C. SALMON.

REPORT.

The first notice was sent out in the Spring of 1918, just at the time of the German offensive. In many cases therefore it did not reach its destination, and in others, no doubt, it was put aside to be dealt with at a more suitable time. Consequently the enclosed list of subscribers includes only a small proportion of those interested; and a copy of the original circular is printed over-leaf for the information of those whom it failed to reach.

The Committee, however, are able to report that gifts amounting to more than £27,000 have already been received; and they hope that with the issue of this statement the total will quickly reach £40,000, the minimum sum for which they asked.

The need for Educational Assistance has already been met; but the rise in prices means an increase in the cost of the Permanent Memorial; and the Old Malvernian Society is about to issue to its members a statement which will emphasise the need of raising a very substantial sum for Endowment.

1. THE PERMANENT MEMORIAL.

Details of proposals, and notice of a General Meeting at which they will be presented and discussed, are enclosed. All will agree that whatever form it takes, the Memorial should be worthy of the sacrifice made by those whose names it will commemorate. The Committee hope that the sum at present available will be largely increased by the gifts of those who did not receive the first notice, and by thankofferings from parents and others who have been spared the loss of those they loved.

The General Fund, on which the cost of the Permanent Memorial will form a first charge, stands at present at £8,100.

2. EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE FOR SONS OF O. M.s.

Valuable Memorial Exhibitions at the School have been founded by parents in memory of:—

Capt. Wilfrid Saxby Barham, annual value	...	...	...	...	£75
Major John Neill Black	...	...	...	...	£75
Lieut. Thomas Gair	...	...	...	...	£150
Capt. Christopher Francis Aden Ley	...	...	...	...	£100
Lieut. Maurice Aden Ley	...	...	...	...	£100

Similar Exhibitions have been founded in memory of:—

Lieut. Cecil Hubert Wright-Ingle, at Pembroke College, Cambridge	...	£100
Lieut. Arthur Leslie Gwynne-Jones, at Oxford, Cambridge, or Woolwich	...	£50

The total capital value of these Exhibitions is about £13,500. It is expected that they will practically meet the claims for such assistance; and it is suggested that the provision of any necessary balance shall be made a first charge on the Endowment Fund.

3. ENDOWMENT AND IMPROVEMENT FUND.

The following valuable gifts have already been received or promised. The Committee will cordially welcome others.

For Endowment, by purchase of College Debentures:—

The Old Malvernian Society	...	...	...	...	£1000
Major A. I. R. Butler (Chairman of the Society and Member of College Council)	...	...	...	...	£1000
Joseph Shaw, K.C., (Member of College Council)	...	...	...	...	£100
G. W. Parkes, Esq. and Mrs. Parkes—a thank-offering	...	...	...	...	£200

For the provision of special equipment in connection with a new Science building:—

H. S. Stone, Esq., M.D. (in memory of Capt. Noel Herbert Stone)	...	£1000
J. Stott, Esq. (in memory of Lieut. George Whittaker Stott)	...	£1500

It cannot be too widely understood that a School without endowment cannot provide an adequate surplus for the most essential Science and Art equipment unless its fees are materially higher than those of endowed schools with which it has in a sense to compete.

Not only has Malvern no endowment: it has to provide the interest and sinking fund for £130,000 of capital borrowed for its foundation.

The Committee has no doubt that when this is generally understood further liberal gifts will be forthcoming.

Yours faithfully,

P. OGDEN LAWRENCE, Chairman of College Council.
F. S. PRESTON, Headmaster.
S. R. JAMES, Headmaster 1897-1914.
