On two separate occasions, at BATU PAHAT on 15 Jan 1942 and at AYER HITAM from 6 - 21 Jan, this officer displayed outstanding leadership in keeping his four gun section in action under heavy bombing and machine gun attacks by hostile aircraft. Later his section on its final position at ANSON ROAD sustained repeated heavy and accurate bombing attacks, which caused casualties to both men and equipment. Lt. HAMP kept his guns in action and firing accurately up to the last moment.	Lt-Gen. A.E. Percival, G.O.C. Malaya.	M.C.
The high morale of this section was due in very large measure to the example of courage and steadiness under fire shown by this officer.			M.C. 13. 12. 45 43741 P.T.O.
