	6 Gren Gds	233183	W/Lieut STOKES-ROBERTS Richard G. George Richard.	During the advance to BATTIPAGLIA on 10 Sept 43 this officers' company was ordered to attack an enemy position. He led his platoon with outstanding dash and leadership and successfully captured his objective destroying a A.Tk gun and capturing PWs. Three half-tracked armd vehicles then appeared which he engaged with small arms fire and forced to retire. The position had not been finally reorganised when the enemy attacked with tanks. Again this officer showed complete disregard for his own personal safety moving about in the open organising the withdrawal of his pl which was accomplished in good order to a position already assigned to him. During the whole action he showed courage and leadership of the order and exceptional devotion to duty.	W.M. Coghwell Lieut. Col Comd. 6 Gren Gds R. L. McClure Lieut-General Commander 10 Corps J. J.
